14. If you are a Black American and wish to enter the National AchievementSM Program as well as the National Merit[®] Program, fill in this oval.

NMSC conducts two nationwide scholarship competitions—the National Merit[®] Scholarship Program, which is open to all students who meet entry requirements, and the National AchievementSM Scholarship Program, a competition in which only Black American students participate. Answers you give in sections 13-14 and your scores will be used by NMSC in designating students who qualify to continue in the 2006 National Merit Program and National Achievement Program as well as high-scoring participants to be recognized publicly.
